

Tiffanie Malvo

Daughter of Reggae veteran Anthony Malvo; Tiffanie is following in his footsteps as a singer and performer. Also a model and aspiring actress; Tiffanie is adding to an already famous legacy.

Growing up in a musical household, inspired by her parents Ruby Dillon and International recording artist Anthony Malvo, Tiffanie realized she wanted to be a singer at thirteen and was determined to make her own path with the blessing of her parents and the Malvo magic touch, it was only a given for Tiffanie to join the family business

A triple threat singer, trained dancer, and actress, Tiffanie joined the Ashe Performing Arts Company for Acting/Dancing/Singing at age fifteen.

After graduating from George Brown College, she recorded her first song: a duet with her father Anthony Malvo.

With great reviews and response _____ was her confirmation to follow her dreams in the music world.

With firm roots in Toronto, Tiffanie is no stranger on digital streams and on airwaves in Canada.

Her song "Come Inside" featuring Supreme, quickly reached the #1 spot on the CHRY 105.5 FM "local charts" in Toronto, and eventually reaching #1 on their International chart.

Her _____ single landed on radio in 2012 and gained a Canadian and worldwide following. _____ in 2013 finalized her catalogue for the stage and Tiffanie has since performed in Canada and Jamaica; with a 2014 Reggae Sum Fest performance which gave her much recognition.

In 2016, top producers DeeJay Dario and award winning Major Lazer called upon the talents of Tiffanie to release the dancehall/Edm fusion . This would mark the first song released in the UK Markets and UK charts giving Tiffanie more fans.

Known for her interactive live performances and stylish presence, Tiffanie has graced the stage representing for strong, classy and independent women. Ms. Malvo is getting great reviews after opening for Nesbeth, Wayne Wonder, Exco Levi, Ding Dong and Tifa.

With her mix of singing and deejaying, Tiffanie is creating her own sound and her latest releases and have been blazing up the Canadian market both in nightclubs and on radio, leading to more performances. The woman that has everyone saying “Oh Snaps!” has so much in store and ready to show the world.

Malvo_ent